Application for a long-stay temporary business visa (for a stay of up to 4 years)

Form

1066

Important

You can also lodge this application on the DIMIA website www.immi.gov.au/e\_visa/business.htm

Before completing this form you should read the detailed information in the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (DIMIA) booklet 1154 Sponsoring a temporary overseas employee to Australia. All booklets and forms can be found on DIMIA's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/formlist.htm

You should also read the following instructions carefully.

Please ensure that all questions on this form are answered and any requested information attached. DIMIA may decide your application on the basis of the information provided in your application form.

This form should only be used by persons seeking to work in Australia on a long-stay temporary basis (ie. up to 4 years) as a temporary business entrant.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you:

- have been sponsored to work in Australia and you have been advised by your sponsor to apply for your visa;
- will be working in Australia under a Labour Agreement (LA) and you have been advised by your sponsor to apply for your visa;
- will be working in Australia on the basis of a transfer within your company;
- will be working in Australia under a Regional Headquarters agreement (RHQ) or an Invest Australia Supported Skills agreement (IASS);
- have established a business in Australia as the holder of an independent executive visa and you are applying for a second independent executive visa;
- will be a representative of a supplier of services located outside Australia; or
- are a person recommended for entry by the Australian Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Charges and method of payment

You will be required to pay the prescribed charge when you lodge this application. See form 990i Charges for current fees and charges.

Payment must accompany your application and is generally not refunded if the application is unsuccessful. To make a payment in Australia, please pay by credit card, debit card or by bank cheque or money order made payable to DIMIA. Please do not pay by cash or personal cheque.

If you are applying outside Australia, before you make your payment, please contact the nearest Australian mission overseas to find out what methods of payment can be accepted at that office.

Who can be included in this application?

At no extra charge, you can include in this application form your spouse and any dependants who will accompany you to Australia. Dependants include children under 18 years of age AND children and other relatives 18 or over who are wholly or substantially reliant on you for financial support for their basic needs. Persons 18 or over must also show that they have been reliant on you for a substantial period and that they are more reliant on you than on any other person or source. A person may also be considered dependent on you if they rely on you for financial support because of a disability.

Residential Address

You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address may result in this application being invalid. A Post Office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Let DIMIA know if you change your address

If you change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell DIMIA your new address and how long you will be there. DIMIA will send communication about your application to the latest address for correspondence you have provided.

Communication about your application can be sent to another person that you have authorised, but you will be taken to have received the communication that DIMIA sends to that person. DIMIA must be informed (in writing) of any address change for either you or your authorised person.

Medical and x-ray examinations

Please enquire about health checking procedures and forms at the office where you intend to lodge this application. If examinations are required, you will need to submit 2 additional passport-sized photographs for attachment to the health examination form.

How to apply

Step 1

To make a valid application for a Temporary Business (Long Stay) visa, you must lodge your visa application at the same time as, or after the sponsorship application is lodged. If the sponsorship and nomination have been approved, your sponsor will provide you with a copy of the sponsorship and nomination approval letter and other documents needed to assist in deciding your visa application.

Note: The sponsor at the time you lodge your visa application must be the same sponsor at the time of visa grant.

It is essential that you attach all these documents to your visa application.

Step 2

Make sure you and your accompanying family members have passports which are valid.

If you are already in Australia, check the expiry date of your current visa. You should lodge your visa application before your current visa expires.

Note: If you already have a visa for travel to Australia and you are granted another visa, the first visa will cease.

Step 3

Complete the application form.

Please either type or use a pen, and write neatly in English using BLOCK LETTERS.

If you need more space to answer questions or wish to provide additional relevant information, attach a signed and dated sheet giving the details.

Any alterations made before you lodge the form must be initialled and dated.

Step 4

Where should you lodge your application?

If you:

- are being sponsored by an Australian business (including under an LA, an RHQ or an IASS), you should lodge your application form, passports, fee and any attachments, online on the DIMIA website www.immi.gov.au/e\_visa/business.htm or in Australia at the same DIMIA office as your sponsor's sponsorship and/or nomination applications were lodged;
- are sponsored by a business that is based outside of Australia, you should lodge your visa application at an Australian mission overseas and you must be outside of Australia when you lodge your application;
- have established a business in Australia as the holder of an independent executive visa and you are applying for a second independent executive visa, you should lodge your application at a DIMIA office in Australia;
- are applying under service seller arrangements or you are a person recommended for entry by the Australian Minister for Foreign Affairs, and you are currently in Australia, you should lodge your application at a DIMIA office in Australia. If you are currently outside Australia, you should lodge your application at an Australian mission overseas.

Your application can be lodged personally or by your representative, or sent by mail.

If you want to change any details after you lodge your application, or if you want to withdraw it, please contact the office where you lodged your application.

You should also advise that office if any of the information you gave in your application changes while your application is being considered.

What happens then?

Your application will be considered and you may be asked to provide additional information to enable a decision to be made.

You will be advised in writing whether your application has been approved or not.

If your application is refused, you will be given a reason for the decision as well as information about your review rights.

Applications made by people who are in Australia

If you are applying for a visa in Australia this form also serves as an application for any class of bridging visa (classes A, C or E) for which you may be able to apply. A bridging visa is granted to ensure visa applicants retain the legal authority to remain in Australia pending a decision on their application, even after the visa they held prior to applying has expired.

If you need to travel overseas temporarily before the application is decided, you should contact the processing office to enquire if you are eligible for a Bridging visa B to enable you to return to Australia.

If you are seeking to change the work conditions of your existing visa before the application is decided, you should apply on form 1005 Application for a bridging visa.

Intra-company transfers

Streamlined processing arrangements are in place to assist executives, managers and specialists on intra-company transfer (ie. employees of an international business transferred to Australia to work in the business' branch or subsidiary). These arrangements also assist intra-company transfers between Asia Pacific Economic Co-operation (APEC) economies [APEC economies are: Australia, Brunei Darrussalam, Canada, Chile, China, Hong Kong (China), Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Peru, the Philippines, Russia, Singapore, Chinese Taipei, Thailand, the United States of America, and Vietnam].

Visa condition – 8107

If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to visa condition 8107 unless you are granted an independent executive visa (further application onshore). This requires that a holder of a temporary long-stay business visa (subclass 457), sponsored to work in Australia, must not:

- cease to be employed by the employer who sponsored them (ie. become unemployed or change employer); or
- work in a position or occupation inconsistent with the nominated position or occupation for this visa subclass; or
- work for another person or for themselves while working for the sponsoring employer.

If a visa holder wishes to change employer, a new visa application is required, together with an approved sponsorship and nomination, to allow full consideration against the visa regulations.

Sponsorship undertakings

The business employing you in Australia must meet a number of sponsorship undertakings in relation to you and your accompanying family members, eg. sponsors must comply with Australian industrial relations laws, Australian levels of remuneration and conditions of employment. These undertakings are detailed on form 1196 Sponsoring temporary overseas employees to Australia. Failure by the business employing you in Australia to meet its sponsorship obligations may result in: barring the business from sponsoring or nominating further sponsored employees for a specified period of time; cancellation of the business' sponsorship status; and/or cancellation of your visa, and the visas of any of your family members.

Further information, including a list of your employer's sponsorship undertakings, is available in DIMIA form 1196 Sponsoring temporary overseas employees to Australia which is available from the DIMIA website

www.immi.gov.au/allforms/formlist.htm

Certified regional employment

If your visa is granted on the basis of a nomination approved under regional sponsored temporary entry arrangements, your visa may be cancelled if you are found to be working and/or living in a non-regional location. These locations are specified in a Gazette Notice, made under the Migration Regulations. The Gazette Notice is available on DIMIA's homepage www.immi.gov.au/legislation/gazettals/index.htm

Medical coverage

You should discuss health insurance arrangements with your sponsor as temporary business entrants are generally not entitled to access Australia's national health insurance scheme.

Medicare Levy Exemption

The Medicare Levy is a tax paid through the personal tax system. The Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 imposes a Medicare levy on individuals who are considered to be Australian residents under the taxation laws. People granted temporary residence visas by DIMIA are often considered to be Australian residents under the taxation laws and may be subject to the Medicare Levy. The Medicare Levy is based on the taxable income of the individual for each income tax year.

Temporary residents who have not been entitled to Medicare benefits (or Medicare benefits under reciprocal health care agreements) and have no dependants who are entitled to such benefits can seek an exemption from the Medicare levy in their income tax return at the end of each financial year, provided their lack of entitlement to Medicare benefits has been certified by the Minister for Health.

Temporary residents from countries with which Australia has reciprocal health care arrangements are eligible for Medicare assistance for immediately necessary treatment. Nationals from most of these countries are therefore not exempt from the Medicare levy (applicants for parent visas, New Zealand residents not residing in Australia and people from Ireland may be able to obtain exemptions via certification).

Before claiming an exemption from the Medicare levy in your income tax return to the Australian Taxation Office, you need to apply to the Levy Exemption Certification Unit of the Health Insurance Commission (HIC) for certification that you (including any dependants) were not entitled to Medicare benefits for a particular period. If your application is successful, the letter advising of certification should be submitted in support of a claim for exemption from the Medicare levy in your income tax return. Such certification is done on an individual basis and must be done retrospectively, ie. you can only apply after the end of financial year for certification of any period in the financial year just finished.

If you are not sure about your entitlement to Medicare benefits, you should check with the Medicare Levy Exemption Certification Unit of the HIC on telephone number 1300 300 271 (for the cost of a local call within Australia). The application form for Medicare levy exemption certification and further information about procedures can also be obtained by phoning this number, or from the internet www.hic.gov.au/yourhealth/forms/mf.htm (select the 'Medicare Levy Exemption Certification form' link to download the document in Adobe Acrobat format), or by writing to:

About the information you give in this form

DIMIA is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. Information provided will be used for assessing your visa application, and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act.

Information about your health, including the results of any tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result(s) may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory Health agencies.

Form 1163i Health requirement for temporary entry to Australia provides additional information on Australia's visa health requirements. This form is available at DIMIA offices or via the internet www.immi.gov.au/allforms/formlist.htm

DIMIA may disclose information you provide to other government departments or agencies to assist in assessing the application or to ensure Australian laws are complied with.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and regulation of migration agents.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by DIMIA of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from DIMIA offices, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.

Authorisation of a person to act and receive communication

You may authorise another person to act on your behalf and/or receive all written communications about your visa application with DIMIA. To do this you will need to complete Section E Authorising another person and Section F Details of authorised person in this form. The authorised person will need to sign at Section F. You can only appoint one authorised person at any time.

Nominating a person to act on your behalf includes authorising DIMIA to send to that person any written communications relating to your application that would otherwise have been sent to you. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

If you decide to change the authorised person that you have nominated after you have lodged your application, you must promptly advise DIMIA in writing of this change.

Using a migration agent

You are not required to use a migration agent to assist with your application. However, if you intend to use a migration agent, you are advised to use a registered migration agent.

Under Australian law, anyone who uses knowledge of migration procedures to offer immigration assistance to a person wishing to obtain a visa to enter or remain in Australia must be registered.

A list of registered migration agents is available from the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can contact the MARA at:

PO Box Q1551
QVB NSW 1230
AUSTRALIA

Phone: 61 2 9299 5446

Facsimile: 61 2 9299 8448

E-mail: themara@themara.com.au

Registered migration agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct and generally charge for their services. The MARA investigates complaints against registered migration agents and may take disciplinary action against them. If you have a concern about a registered migration agent, you should contact the MARA. You can also download a copy of the complaint form from the MARA website.

Consent to communicate electronically

DIMIA may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application DIMIA may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to DIMIA communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by DIMIA for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Commonwealth Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to DIMIA over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on the form to indicate their consent to this form of communication.
